

Global Infectious Diseases Initiative Lecture
July 7th, 2017
Oriental Hotel Lekki, Lagos
The Ballroom
4 P.M. – 10 P.M.

FACULTY

1. Nadine Regis, M.D.

American Board-Certified Emergency Room Physician—Midtown Medical Center (Columbus, GA. USA)

2. Yoav Golan, M.D., FACP, FIDSA

American Board-Certified Internist and Infectious Diseases & Associate Professor of Medicine—Tufts University Hospital (Boston, MA. USA)

3. Professor Sade Ogunsola

Deputy Vice Chancellor & Professor of Microbiology—University of Lagos
College of Medicine

4. Folarin Olubowale, M.D., FACP

American Board-Certified Internist and Infectious Diseases—Ultracare Medical Office (Columbus, GA. USA)

(1) Infectious Diseases Emergencies

Dr. Nadine Regis

- Overview of common and uncommon life-threatening infections, including diagnoses and treatment in the emergency room.

Time: 40 minutes

(2) Infection Control Strategies for the developing world—especially sub-Saharan Africa.

Dr. Yoav Golan

Time: 40 minutes

(3) Update on tropical infectious diseases, especially recent outbreaks.

Professor Sade Ogunsola

- Learn about common infections in the tropics, including diagnosis and treatment options.

Time: 40 minutes

(4) Panel Discussion/ Questions and Answers on lecture topics and general infectious diseases

Dr. Nadine Regis, Dr. Yoav Golan, Professor Sade Ogunsola, and Dr. Folarin Olubowale

Time: 20 minutes